Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing this letter to you regarding the IT position that has recently opened up in Infosys. The amount of energy and enthusiasm that is associated with your Infosys has always interested me in applying for a position at your company.

I have studied Bachelor of Computer science from Ramakrishna Mission Vivekananda College. During my time there I had taken up courses related to Frontend Development, Video Creation, UI/UX designing, Mobile Development. Currently, I hold a total 84 percentage and have been a good student the entire term of my study in the University.

My focused study helped me develop ProgLang App - it is based on a idea of Dictionary, specially developed for programmers to clear their doubts in programming languages like C, C++, Java, Python.

As a person who held the role of Trainee Programmer in Congruent Solution Pvt Ltd, I feel that I can be a great asset to your company. I have experience in 6 Months and I believe that it is an important skill to master in order to perform the job properly.

My career highlights include:

- 1.Mood Capturing App to monitor Employees mental health.
- 2.Outstanding Sprint Performer.
- 3.Created Advertisement Video for Winsmart - Facility Services.

I am eagerly waiting for your response, and I have enclosed my resume for more details about my personal work and educational qualifications.

Please contact me to discuss the job opportunity further. My contact details are mentioned in my cover letter and resume.

Kind regards,

Abi krishna
